

CAP REGULATION 130-2

28 April 2022

APPROVED/R. KIRKPATRICK/CAP/LG

Aircraft Maintenance

CIVIL AIR PATROL AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE MANAGEMENT

CAPR 130-2 dated 4 October 2021 with ICL 22-01 dated 3 March 2022 is supplemented as follows:

14.5. Added. Aircrew Survival Kit. The Aircrew Survival Kit installed in each corporate powered aircraft shall contain the following items:

Item	Qty	Item	Qty
List of Contents & Inspection	1	Match Safe with matches	1
Emergency (Space) blankets	3	Compass	1
Signal mirror	1	Multi-function tool/knife	1
First Aid kit	1

The kit shall be inventoried annually and replenished as required. The inspection document shall be placed so it is visible to the aircraft manager or other aircraft personnel during preflight inspections.

21. Added. Consolidated Maintenance. When a MOWG aircraft has required maintenance work to be performed, the pilot will obtain approval from the DO or DOM before any reposition flight. If the aircraft is located at a facility that can correct the maintenance issue, notify the DO or DOM who may grant approval for the repairs to be completed at that facility. The DO or DOM will grant approval for the flight or taxi along with the correct mission number to be used. Once the approval and mission number are obtained, the normal flight release procedures will be followed utilizing the WMIRS system.

21.1. Added. Aircraft drop off for maintenance work. The pilot delivering an aircraft shall provide a copy of the open discrepancy list from AMRAD to the maintenance service facility personnel.

21.2. Added. Aircraft pick up after maintenance work. When the pilot arrives at the maintenance aircraft, they will make sure the closed discrepancy sheet reflects appropriate details outlining what and how the repairs were accomplished. Physically look over the maintenance work that was performed on the aircraft. If the work is in question, the pilot must immediately notify the DO or DOM for further direction. The pilot shall ensure the log book has been updated with the appropriate entries for the work that was performed.
